The study of English with a tutor is noticeably different from group training on courses. With a "streaming" learning method, template programs designed for an average person and not passing the level of training, personal features and learning style of each of the students group are applied. As practice shows, a private English tutor allows you to reduce the time of passing a standard or intensive course in two or three times.

Internet and other media are faster by ads of private tutors. There is a huge number of Internet portals offering Moscow tutoring services. How to choose from this abundance of the one who teach good English in the time limit? How to find a professional? Profile formation of a tutor as a prerequisite

First of all, the tutor must have a higher pedagogical / linguistic education. Students of language universities, for example, can help schoolchildren in fulfilling homework, but they will not be able to conduct full-fledged classes, because they still do not have the relevant knowledge. The same can be said about the carriers of a language that do not have an appropriate education (without a diploma of higher linguistic education or Cambridge CELTA certificates, Delta). In the event that a representative of the English-speaking culture is not a certified teacher, classes with it will consist of one spoken practice, which in itself is not bad, but not learning. Tutor specialization

It is necessary to take into account the specialization of the tutor in one area or another. For example, training of preschoolers has its own specifics that the teacher does not know, conducting classes with high school students. Choosing a teacher to prepare for a serious international exam, pay attention to the availability of documents confirming the right to engage in such activities. Tutor accommodation

In addition to the education and experience (from 3 years) a tutor in this field, it is worth considering a geographical factor. For example, if you live in Chertanovo or Biryulyovo and you need a tutor of the English language, Prague is the perfect option for conducting classes. This metro station unites residents of several large areas of the South of Moscow and is a kind of center for trade and services. Experienced teachers living near M. Prague are included in the Association of private tutoring providing services at home or leaving the office.

Having made the right choice, you can significantly increase your level of proficiency in the language, prepare for a foreign trip, successfully pass the exam or pass an interview in the Western Company.
